"If you don't have a changed heart, you don't have a changed man."
CHAPLAIN RAY ANDERSON, DAVID WADE CORRECTION CENTER, LA

"If one person is truly changed, all of the effort expended is worthwhile."
D. ELTON TRUEBLOOD, FOUNDER YOKEFELLOWS MOVEMENT

"The basic nature of Yokefellowship... is the transforming power of God's love as it is experienced in relationships with each other."
DR. LARRY COLEMAN, YPM VOLUNTEER SINCE 1960'S,
RETIRED CHAPLAIN, DAUPHIN COUNTY PRISON, PA

Special Speakers include.....

Tom Zeager, President Justice & Mercy Inc., is also the owner of Hershey Farm Restaurant & Motor Inn in Lancaster, PA. Tom became aware of the problems of prisoners and the criminal justice system in 1998 and formed an ecumenical, faith-based nonprofit called Justice & Mercy, Inc. J&M advocates for just public policy in Pennsylvania. Tom believes everyone, especially the faith community, needs to help change people's hearts. Tom says, "If there is less crime, there will be fewer victims." More aftercare is also needed to help inmates get on the right track to reinforce their positive efforts.

Mardiann Vincent is the Deputy Secretary for Specialized Facilities and Programs for the PA Dept of Corrections. She supervises the following: Bureau of Treatment Services, Bureau of Correctional Education, Bureau of Community Corrections and the Office of Victim Services. She also supervises the following institutions: Chester, Laurel Highlands, Pittsburgh and Waymart. She is responsible for the treatment, programming and educational services for all inmates at all the department's 27 institutions. She is responsible for the Community Corrections Centers (CCCs), both department operated and contract facilities, throughout PA.

Lance Couturier, Ph.D., is the Senior Forensic Consultant for FATC (Family Advocacy and Training Center for Serious Mental Illness). He assists state and county forensic task forces to develop strategies to divert persons with mental illness from the criminal justice system. He conducts mental health training for police and corrections officers and others interested in forensic services. Lance is a Psychologist on the hospital medical staff at Philhaven Behavioral Healthcare Services where many of his clients have been enmeshed in the criminal justice system. He is on the Board of Directors of the Lancaster County Victim Offender Reconciliation Program assisting LA VORP develop a Circles of Support and Accountability program for sex offenders returning to the community from prison.

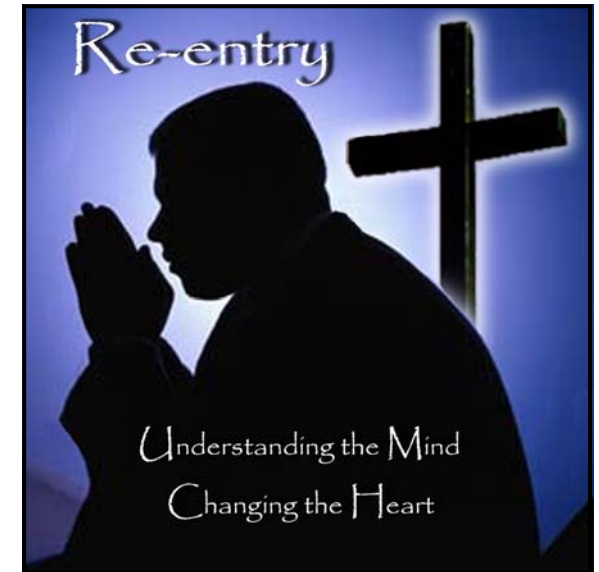

Lance retired in 2007 as the Chief of Psychological Services for the PA Department of Corrections after nearly 28 years of service. For 15 years, he directed the mental health and sex offender treatment services in the DOC's 27 prisons. Prior to that, he served as the Chief Psychologist at SCI Graterford, psychologist at the SE Secure Treatment Unit, and Director of the Juvenile Justice Center Training Institute.
